LIFE ACTION

Coming Next Week

The Life Action event is a unique opportunity for you, along with your entire family, to set aside time for what matters the most in life – seeking God. And, prayerfully, we'll experience personally the new, abundant life Jesus promised to those who love Him.

During each session, you can expect dynamic worship, practical Bible teaching, high-energy children's programs, sessions for teens, and so much more!

Don't forget to clear your family calendar so that you can participate in every session, beginning on Sunday morning.

LIFE ACTION

Mark Your Calendars

The coming Life Action conference will help you slow down, spend time seeking God, examine your priorities, and soak in a whole new perspective. It will give you a vision for living a full and free life with God, and putting that life into action in the world around you.

During each session, you can expect dynamic worship, practical Bible teaching, high-energy children's programs, sessions for teens, and so much more!

Don't forget to clear your family calendar so that you can participate in every session.

Here's another way that you can help out with the Life Action Summit Conference! If it doesn't work for you to be a host home or loan a vehicle, there is another opportunity for you to support this ministry! GracePoint is responsible for feeding the Life Action team for some meals, and snacks, and you can sign up and bring in some food items that will help us to provide this during their time here.

We will have a sign up sheet on the cart, just like the Wednesday Night Meals, where you can sign up, and bring your items in by Sunday, May 8th. If you have any questions, please talk to Christy Cunningham, Paula Osegard or Cindy Nichols.
